SCHEDULE

THE PROVINCIAL SYNOD CONSTITUTION ORDINANCE OF 1907 AMENDING ORDINANCE OF 1957

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Schedule to the Provincial Synod Constitution Ordinance of 1907, the Provincial Synod of the Province of New South Wales ordains and rules as follows:-

1. Clause 2 of the Schedule to the said Ordinance is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:-

"The Provincial Synod shall consist of three Houses namely the House of Bishops, the House of Clergy and the House of Laity.

The three houses shall sit together in full Synod and shall deliberate and transact business therein and shall vote together unless a vote by Houses is required but not less than three members of the House of Bishops or by five members of the House of Clergy, or by five members of the House of Laity. In the event of a vote by Houses being required all questions shall be put first to the House of Laity, then to the House of Clergy, and finally to the House of Bishops and no question shall be deemed to be resolved in the affirmative by Provincial Synod unless it is so resolved by a vote of the majority of those present in each of the three Houses.

A House by a majority of its own members voting may decide to consider separately any matter in debate whereupon further discussion of the matter shall be postponed until there has been an opportunity of separate consideration."

2. Clause 7 of the said Schedule is hereby amended:-

(a) By omitting the words "of Representatives shall" in lines 2 and 3 thereof, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "of Clergy and the House of Laity shall in each case. "

(b) By motting the word "Representative" in line 4 thereof.

3. Clause 12 of the said Schedule is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:-

"Every Ordinance of the Provincial Synod shall be made by a majority of each House.

The presence of at least three Bishops of the House of Bishops and fifteen clerical representatives of the House of Clergy and fifteen lay representatives of the House of Laity representing at least two Dioceses shall be necessary to constitute a quorum."
