
Determination II.

DETERMINATION II.; GENERAL SYNOD, SESSION 1916.

(Made 17th October, 1916.)

RULE TO PROVIDE FOR THE APPROVAL OF THE SYNOD BEING GIVEN TO CERTAIN ALTERATIONS OF THE CONSTITUTION.

(Inoperative until the next Session of General Synod.)

The approval of the Synod is hereby given to the Determination in the Schedule hereto, which shall be communicated to the several Diocesan Synods, and if assented to by at least two-thirds of such Dioceses as shall have accepted the Constitution, shall be brought before the Synod at its next Session, with a view to its being finally passed.

SCHEDULE.

DETERMINATION ; SESSION

RULE TO MAKE CERTAIN ALTERATIONS OF THE CONSTITUTION.

The Constitution of this General Synod of the Dioceses of the Church of England in Australia and Tasmania shall be and is hereby altered in manner following:—

1. The proviso added at the end of the eighth Section by Determination XI., Session 1905, and finally passed by Determination III., Session 1910, viz.: "Provided also that every Determination which the General Synod has repealed shall cease to be binding upon the Church in any Diocese" shall be and is hereby repealed.
