LATE PAPERS

APRA and ASIC briefing for AFGD Board and the Corporate Trustees of the Diocese of Grafton.

This update covers the period from the last advice 13th April 2017 to date 8th May 2017.

Timeline of events to date

This is the last informal response we had from ASIC and Stephanie Rickard.

13/4/17 – Response Stephanie Rickard to Blaine Fitzgerald - verbal

It may be possible to retain existing retail until such time as they transfer to the Managed scheme as long as we do not vary terms of the existing rollover until such time as we transfer compliance to MSC.
She will check class order and advice.

Her recommendation is

- Lodge ID statement as Wholesale Investment Fundraiser
 - Move retail non-associated into Managed scheme and not rely on provisions of the class order as the funds will be held in a regulated approved MIS.
 - No requirement to re-lodge ID Statement at a later date as retail as retail funds sit outside in trust and are protected.

20/4/17 – Follow up Blaine Fitzgerald to ASIC via Stephanie Rickard

Hi Stephanie,

We spoke last week regarding our existing retail non associated clients and the possibility we may be able to retain them, as long as we did not vary the terms of the existing investment, until such time as they transfer to a managed regulated scheme or failing a cost effective solution being achieved with a third party provider return the funds to the client,

At the time you indicated you would check the class order and provide feedback as to what is appropriate.

AFGD Board met today and have made a decision to lodge our Identification Statement as a Wholesale Charitable Investment Fundraiser and will be providing instructions to David Ford of Emil Ford to do that on our behalf.

I'm just following up to see if you have had a chance to review the class order and have any feedback for us.

20/4/17 – Request Blaine Fitzgerald to Joseph Omara & David Ford of Emil Ford

Hi Joseph and David,

The Board of AFGD has been considering the response we received from ASIC in your email of 7/4/17.

The Board as at 20/4/17 passed the following resolution;

"That AFGD lodge an Identification Statement with ASIC as a Wholesale Charitable Investment Fundraiser whilst we continue to actively source a suitable arrangement for our existing retail non associated clients. Further we request from ASIC a transition period to 31/12/17 for our existing retail associated clients."

In response to your question raised then we have made a decision to go with option 1 and lodge as wholesale. I have made some draft changes to the ID statement to reflect that decision and have attached for your review, and I am requesting assistance with finalising the draft including the updated definition of volunteer and lodging the document with ASIC.

The Board of AFGD as a separate but related matter also passed the following resolution.
Can you please respond to the Board's request for advice.

"That after being advised of a possible breach of the Corporations Act, that AFGD seek legal advice of the possible consequences of such a breach."

A reply to all would be appreciated as I will be unavailable for comment until late 1/5/17.

kind regards,

27/4/17 – Joesph Omara of Emil Ford response to Blaine Fitzgerald & same day response from Chris Nelson in Blaine's absence in red.

Dear Joseph,

In Blaine's absence, I wish to make several comments. My comments are in red in the body of your email.

On 27 April 2017 at 15:12, Joseph Omara <joseph.omara@emilford.com.au> wrote:

Dear Blaine

Thank you for your email.

Lodgement of Identification Statement

We attach a revised draft of the Identification Statement and make the following comments:

1. We have deleted all paragraphs relating to lodgement as a retail charitable investment fundraiser. Noted
2. We have incorporated the definition of volunteer staff member that you requested in your email to us of 21 March 2017. However, we think that ASIC is likely to find this definition too broad. (Noted) If ASIC does not accept your definition of volunteer staff member, we suggest the following definition, which you indicated could serve as a backup:

In determining whether a person is to be treated as a voluntary staff member, AFGD requires that person to work at least four hours per week on a voluntary basis. A person is not a voluntary staff member simply because they may volunteer for specific tasks, such as agreeing to be included in a roster from time to time for performing such functions as welcoming, social organisation, music, reading, assisting clergy, counting collections or cleaning or decorating church premises, as distinct from persons performing an identifiable staff role.

The word 'staff' in the backup definition is very restrictive. Could 'governance, management or administrative role' be used instead of 'staff role'?

3. Do you mean to request from ASIC a transition period in relation to existing retail, non-associated clients, rather than retail, associated clients? We can request from ASIC that AFGD be allowed to retain its existing retail, non-associated clients until 31 December 2017. However, this request has effectively already been denied since ASIC has refused to allow AFGD to rely on Class Order 02/184.

Although AFGD has no right to rely on Class Order 02/184, the ability to phase out clients for which AFGD is not permitted to serve would be in the best interests of all clients. Approval to 31 December would allow the phase out to be orderly. We would like to make the request unless you take the view that it would have unintended consequences.

4. We note that the ASIC Charitable Instrument was amended on 28 March 2017. There is now a new definition of retail client, which excludes certain types of investors from the definition of retail client such as sophisticated investors, as defined by section 708(8) of the Corporations Act 2001.

Are the amendments in the proposed Identification Statement reflective of the new definition?

Please confirm that you are happy for us to email the revised Identification Statement to Stella Lee at ASIC. I approve submission except if you believe that any of my questions or statements above require clarification before making the submission.

Breach of Corporations Act 2001

You have asked us to advise you regarding the possible consequences of breach of the Corporations Act 2001.

In her email of 27 February 2017, Stella Lee indicated that she would be referring the issue of AFGD's possible breaches of the Corporations Act 2001 to ASIC's Misconduct and Breach Reporting team.

We will advise separately regarding this issue. We look forward to receiving this advice.

28/4/17 – David Ford of Emil Ford to Stella Lee ASIC.

Dear Stella,

Thank you for your email of 4 April 2017.

In response, our client has instructed us to send you a revised identification statement and lodge as a wholesale charitable investment fundraiser.

Please let me know whether the attached identification statement is now acceptable.

Our client acknowledges that it is not entitled to rely on transitional relief under ASIC Class Order CO 02/184 and is seeking to ensure that its operations comply with the requirements of the Corporations Act 2001. To allow for a smooth phase out process for its existing debenture holders, our client requests that it be permitted to retain its existing retail, non-associated clients until 31 December 2017.

Please let me know if you require any more information from our client in relation to this request.

David

1/5/17 response from Stephanie Rickard of ASIC to Blaine Fitzgerald

Hi Blaine

1. if you engage an RE and retain your retail, non-associated investors, there should be a relatively short period of time between now and the date on which the RE is able to register the existing structure(s) with ASIC as a scheme. Technically, AFGD is in breach of the Corporations Act until the date the schemes are registered. ASIC wouldn't usually grant relief from the legal requirements in this instance. Rather, we would adopt, tacitly or otherwise, a 'no-action' position in relation to the breach, provided of course that AFGD is using best efforts to transition into the new regime expeditiously. In this scenario, investments can be rolled over for so long as the investors choose to do so.
2. if you do not engage an RE, AFGD has the option of becoming a wholesale charitable investment fundraiser. I think this is what is meant by 'we see no other avenue available to us'. In this instance, AFGD will still need to lodge an identification statement at some point (essentially, so that we have AFGD details on file). However, AFGD will not need an AFSL nor will it be required to register the structures as schemes. Technically, AFGD is in breach until the date on which all investments of retail, non-associated investors are redeemed or expire. Again, ASIC wouldn't explicitly grant relief from the requirements. Rather, we would adopt a 'no-action' position in relation to the breach, provided that no investments were rolled-over but permitted to expire in the normal course.

As you know, there is some doubt as to whether AFGD has been relying on the original class order [CO 02/184]. A new Instrument 2016/813, replacing [CO 02/184] was issued in September 2016. ASIC has since (this week) actually removed the deadline for lodgement of the Identification Statement by 1 March 2017 to enable lodgers to invoke the transitional period and continue to rely on [CO 02/184] until 31 December 2017. The effect is that the transitional period is automatically available to anyone who is currently relying on [CO 02/184]. However, since we cannot say definitely that AFGD has relied on [CO 02/184] and continue to do so, arguably, AFGD is in technical breach of the Corporations Act. However, as discussed above, we do not propose to take any action in this regard. We are adopting a facilitative approach in relation to charitable investment fundraisers transitioning into a new and more prescriptive regime.

Feel free to call me if you have any further questions.

Kind regards

2/5/17 – Blaine Fitzgerald to Joseph Omara of Emil Ford

Hi Joseph,

I'm back from leave now and would like to provide an update:

1/- ASIC potential misconduct and breach.

Refer below to an email I received from ASIC yesterday.

The new approach they have adopted is of assistance to AFGD and may negate the earlier request from the Board for advice in regard to the possible consequences of a breach. However, I will leave it with Emil Ford to decide the best approach.

2/- At the Board meeting of 20/4/17 AFGD passed the following resolution:
We would appreciate your comment and feedback on the statement proposed.

That AFGD places a moratorium on the acceptance of new funds from retail non-associated clients until the response to the ASIC Class Order is clarified. In this period AFGD will communicate with prospective clients to this effect including a statement on the AFGD website. The draft statement shall be submitted to Emil Ford for comment prior to use.

The draft statement is:

"Anglican Funds Grafton Diocese is currently responding to requests from the Australian Securities Investment Commission regarding the scope of its operational license and until that is clarified AFGD is unable to accept any new retail funds in its portfolio.

AFGD expects this matter to be better understood within 30 days and will be in contact with existing and prospective customers as soon as clarification is achieved."

3/- Have we received any feedback from ASIC at this stage in relation to our ID Statement as a Wholesale Charitable Investment Scheme?

3/5/17 David Ford of Emil Ford response to Blaine's email 2/5/17

Dear Blaine,

While you are back from leave, Joseph is now on leave – a belated honeymoon.

In answer to your three questions:

1. Joseph had prepared a draft advice for you in relation to the possible consequences of breach of the Corporations Act 2001 late last week. Despite AFGD being in breach of the Act, our advice (if I'd had time to check and send it) would have reflected the approach which Stephanie Rickard has taken. Accordingly, we believe that AFGD is best served by pursuing its negotiations with Melbourne Securities Corporation.
2. I note that when the Board passed its resolution on 20 April 2017, it did not have the benefit of seeing the response from Stephanie Rickard on 1 May 2017. Accordingly, assuming that you are proposing to engage an RE as soon as possible, there appears to be no objection from ASIC to AFGD allowing retail non-associated investors to rollover their investments should they wish to do so.

Accordingly, I suggest that you might consider including a statement to this effect on the AFGD website:

Following the issue of the ASIC Corporations (Charitable Investment Fundraising) Instrument 2016/813, which applies from 1 March 2017, Anglican Funds Grafton Diocese is currently clarifying with the Australian Securities & Investments Commission the exemptions to which it is entitled as a charitable fundraiser. Pending that clarification, AFGD is unable to accept new investments from retail clients. Existing retail clients may retain their investments and may roll them over.

AFGD expects matters to be clarified by [insert date] and will contact existing and prospective retail clients at that point.

It might be prudent to show this to Stephanie before putting it up.

3. No.

David

Dear Blaine,

Further to my email of last night, I attach an email received this afternoon from Stella Lee of ASIC.

As we foreshadowed, she has queried the criteria in the revised Identification Statement concerning volunteer staff members. Given our previous comments in relation to this issue, how would you like us to respond?

In relation to Stella's recommendation that AFGD redeem the debentures with existing retail, non-associated clients as soon as practicable, I note that Stephanie Rickard has effectively given contrary advice but on the basis that AFGD engages an RE relatively soon. I assume therefore that you will for the time being rely on Stephanie's advice.

Regards,

David

Thank you for sending us a new identification statement under ASIC Instrument 2016/813 (the Instrument).

Criteria for identifying voluntary staff members

As stated in RG 87.31-87.33 our policy of requiring an appropriate criteria for voluntary staff members, such as number of hours regularly worked, is to differentiate those people who are volunteers contributing to specific tasks - such as agreeing to be included in a roster from time to time to perform specific functions, from those people who are "performing an identifiable staff role" and who are "genuinely and substantially involved in the organisation of the charity". The former are not to be classified as "associates" whereas the latter are.

We are concerned that the criteria stated in the ID statement, which is "volunteering... at least 4 hours per week" is not enough to distinguish "voluntary staff members" performing an identifiable staff role and substantially involved in the organisation (i.e. associates) from those "volunteers" performing specific tasks (i.e. non-associates). Could you please provide further submissions on this point?

Existing debenture holders

ASIC is unable to facilitate or expressly permit AFGD to retain its existing retail, non-associated clients who are holding debentures issued by AFGD until 31 December 2017. As the issue of these debentures was a breach of Chapter 6D of the Corporations Act, we recommend that AFGD redeem these debentures from all retail, non-associated clients as soon as practicable.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any queries, however please note that I will be on leave from COB tomorrow, Friday 5 May. As such, please direct any questions after this time to my colleague Sarah-Jane on (02) 9911 2631 or Sarah-Jane.Farlow@asic.gov.au.

Regards
Stella
