Completion of each unit requires attendance and participation in 80% of classes, plus some project work.

Other Acceptable Courses

Education for Ministry

This requires a commitment to membership of an EfM group for four years. Groups meet weekly or fortnightly until the required course load is completed. All groups must be arranged through an accredited EfM mentor. There are several mentors accredited within the diocese of Grafton, and accreditation training is offered annually for graduates of EfM or interested ordained clergy. Please contact the Diocesan Coordinator, the Rev’d Bronwyn Marchant, who can advise of availability and location of the nearest group. The course is administered out of the Australian office of “EfM – Australia”, in Melbourne. The licence for the course is retained by the Anglican Diocese of Brisbane.

Diploma in Theology

A course that is of equivalent standard to first year university undergraduate level. Courses vary somewhat in content but are essentially designed to be able to be completed in two or three years of full-time study or part time until completion. There are a number of recognised Dip Theol courses offered in Australia for folk studying by correspondence or extension. Contact Ministry Development Officer phone: 02 66424122

Bishop’s Certificate

As previously offered in the Diocese.
